To allow the Acquisition Committee to fully analyze the donation you submitted for consideration, you must provide photographs, ideally of each side of the object(s). Please add them at the end of this document

Engagement

The owner of the object(s) submitted for donation confirms being its owner.

Musée maritime du Québec will study the donation offer at the next meeting of the Acquisition Committee based on its collection management policy.

In the event that the donation is accepted by the Museum, the owner agrees to sign a donation contract with the Museum. The owner is responsible for transporting the item(s) to the museum, as well as covering any costs related to the procedure. The owner is aware that the Museum commits to preserving the item, without this constituting a promise that the item will be displayed in its public spaces.

Does the owner want a receipt for tax purposes?

Yes

No

If so, the owner must provide, at their expense, a written estimate of the market value of the object(s) produced by a qualified and recognized individual. In the event of a dispute, the Museum reserves the right to produce a counter-assessment at its expense. The average of the two assessments will be considered as such at the end of the process.
